NEW COUNTERFEITS.

Every counterfeit that has ever been made has one or more mistakes in it. Our aim is to show what that mistake is.

MARINE NAT. BANK, N. Y. City.

2s. A good imitation and very likely to deceive. Genuine read "Marine National Bank of the City of New York. Counterfeit, Marine National Bank of New York.

MERCHANTS' NAT. B'K, N. Y. City.

20s. imitation. The engraving is well executed, and the paper and printing are good. An exceedingly good counterfeit and very likely to deceive.

50 CENT FRACTIONAL CURRENCY.

Latest Issue.—The engraving is coarse and the fine lathe work wanting, though imitated coarsely, yet it is well calculated to deceive. The red and blue fibres in the paper of the genuine are imitated by printing; in the counterfeit, the long beard of Secretary Stanton is darker, and the figures "50" on the right hand are surrounded by solid black instead of fine lines as in the genuine. On the reverse, the counterfeit may be distinguished by the "s" in "Customs" failing to touch the large oval to the next, and also by the absence of shading and the fine lines around the "50" in the corners.

New Issue.—A very good counterfeit. The portrait of Lincoln is coarser and darker than the genuine, and the lathe work in the centre of the die is also darker.

NATIONAL BANK OF COMMERCE, New York City.

20s. imitation. The paper is rather poor, the shading irregular and impression imperfect, although very dangerous counterfeit. In the Battle of Lexington there is no boy behind the soldier loading his gun, while in genuine there is; on the right end, the Goddess of Liberty has no toes to her feet, and but one foot can be seen; in the genuine they are both visible; above her head the word "Loyalty" cannot be seen, while in the genuine it is very plain; the genuine are signed Jno. A. Stevens.

NATIONAL SHOE & LEATHER B'K, New York City.

20s. A good imitation. The face of the bill and the lettering is well done, while the engraving on the back of the note is rather coarse. Very likely to deceive.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY NAT. B'K, Peekskill, N. Y.

2s. imitation. The general appearance of the bill is good, although the shading under the title of the bank is very irregular and dark. The vignette on left end is blurred and very rough.

10s. imitation. Well done.

10s. GREENBACKS.

An excellent imitation of the genuine. Note the following discrepancies. In the genuine, the shading around the 10 in the medallion appears like a fine net work, and runs close up to the figures. In the counterfeit, the shading is "piled up," and becomes coarser as it reaches the figures, forming a light streak or circular haze. Another test is on the figure 10 within the light circle. The genuine has three and one-third dots on the left on the fig. 10, while the counterfeit has but three. Thus:

GENUINE.

COUNTERFEIT.

But the surest test is under the left wing of the eagle. The genuine has FOUR DISTINCT ROWS OF FEATHERS under the wing, while in the counterfeit the rows of feathers are undefined. One issue of this counterfeit is of the new series, letter D, No. 53; another is letter D, with a small 5 under the D, No. 23. These counterfeits are the best we have ever seen.

Newer issues have appeared lately, in which the defects above referred to have been corrected. We would advise our patrons to refuse all tens, greenbacks, unless they know the parties from whom they receive them.

AGENTS WANTED,

Good, reliable Agents wanted to canvass for this Reporter. A liberal commission offered. Address Box 5,196 N. Y. Post Office.

New York, November 25, 1870.

During the month under review the City Banks have gained about $13,000,000 in their surplus over their legal requirement of reserves. This is chiefly due to the abandonment of a certain combination of operators in gold and stocks, of the disreputable scheme to artificially create a monetary stringency, and to the consequent restoration to circulation of funds previously tied up for stock-jobbing purposes.

The money market is more abundantly supplied with funds to meet all demands, on comparatively easy terms, as dullness pervades again the various markets on the New York Stock Exchange with the exception of the gold market. Call loans on stock collaterals are negotiated at 4@6 per cent, 5 being the ruling rate. Discounts of commercial paper range from 6 to 12 per cent, according to time and grades. Foreign Exchange is, to-day, dull, and selling on the standard of sterling; 60 days' commercial, 108 $\frac{3}{4}$ @108 $\frac{3}{4}$; bankers', 109@109 $\frac{1}{4}$ - short sight, 109 $\frac{1}{2}$ @110 $\frac{1}{4}$.

The Gold market has—during the month—since the 27th ult., been very active, and repeatedly disturbed by startling rumors from Europe. Gold declined (4th inst.) to 110—the lowest figure attained since July 5th, 1862—under the reported probability of an armistice being agreed upon by Germany and France, re-acted to 111 $\frac{3}{4}$ when the respective negotiations were stated to have failed, advanced to 113 $\frac{1}{4}$ —17th inst.—under the prospect of additional complications in Europe from the reported threatening attitude of Russia, and was, to-day, from the absence of startling news from Europe, quiet at 111 $\frac{1}{4}$ @112; fluctuations sympathizing closely with bond quotations by cable from London.

In the various Stock markets dullness has been the rule, and quotations irregular; only United States bonds showing comparative steadiness.

For to-day's quotations in the various branches of the New York Stock Exchange, see page 23.

Government Sales of Gold for December

The Secretary of the Treasury has directed the Assistant Treasurer in this city to sell one million of gold on each Wednesday and to purchase one million of bonds each Thursday during the month of December. The aggregate of gold sold will be four millions and of bonds purchased five millions.

Interest on Three per cent. Certificates.

The Secretary of the Treasury has also directed the Assistant Treasurer in this city to give notice that, from and after the 31st day of December next, no interest will be paid upon the three per cent certificates of the denomination of $5,000 between the numbers of 1 and 247 inclusive, and of the denomination of $10,000 between the numbers of 1 and 192 inclusive, nor will such certificates be available after that time as a portion of the lawful money reserves in possession of any national banking association. These certificates in the aggregate amount to $2,000,000.

Counterfeit twenties on the National Shoe and Leather Bank of this city are again being put in circulation. They are a new issue of an old counterfeit.

Funding the National Debt.

It will be remembered that at the last session of Congress an act was passed authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to destroy all the bonds then held, in the Sinking and so-called Special funds; and in accordance therewith the national debt was summarily reduced about $140,000,000. The operations of the Treasury Department have meantime accumulated another large amount of bonds. Should not Congress, at its next session, again authorize their destruction, also? The wisdom of such a course is ardently supported by so distinguished a writer as Adam Smith, who, in his famous book on the "Wealth of Nations," says:

The practice of funding has gradually enfeebled every State which has adopted it. The Italian republics seem to have begun it. Genoa and Venice, the only two remaining which can pretend to an independent existence, have both been enfeebled by it. Spain seems to have learned the practice from the Italian republics, and it has in proportion to its natural strength been still more enfeebled. The debts of Spain are of very old standing. It was deeply in debt before the end of the sixteenth century, about one hundred years before England owed a shilling. France notwithstanding all its natural resources languishes under an oppressive load of the same kind. The republics of the United Provinces are as much enfeebled by their debts as either Greece or Venice.

It will be remembered that Van Sittart, the successor of the Earl of Chatham in the Chancellorship of the English Exchequer, brought England to specie payments by a policy of cancelling the debt instead of maintaining a sinking fund. The important result of such a policy is that it enables the refunding of the debt at a lower rate of interest—the great desideratum with the United States government at the present time.—N. Y. Herald.

Under the provisions of the Act of Congress providing for a redistribution of the Currency, which passed last July, it is ascertained at the Treasury Department that of the $54,000,000 allowed to the West and South, with $25,000,000 contingent, there has thus far been but $4,000,000 called for. It also appears, as a striking comment on the pressure brought to bear for the authorization of gold banks, that thus far only two banks of that character are now in successful operation, one in Boston, Mass., and one in San Francisco, California.

In the case of the United States vs. Jay Cooke, in the United States District Court, Judge Blatchford presiding, the court held: that in order for the government to recover on the eighteen $1,000 seven thirty notes purchased from the defendant, and which it is alleged are counterfeit, it must show that certain eighteen pieces of paper—the alleged counterfeit notes—were never issued by the government. It has undertaken to prove this, but unless it proves also that the papers came from the defendants it cannot affect the defendants injuriously.

The Muskegon National Bank of Muskegon, Mich., has been organized as successor to A. Gustin & Co., bankers. Its capital is $100,000. The officers are: A. Gustin, President; Alex. Rodgers, Vice-President; E. G. Comstock, Cashier.

Important Announcement from the Treasury Department.

It having come to the knowledge of the Treasury Department that certain parties were availing themselves of the privileges of circular Number One, and obtaining exchanges on the South by depositing old notes in New York and having new ones sent to their correspondents in the South, a new edition of the circular has been issued, with amended regulations, stating that the department having now on hand a supply of United States notes of the series of 1869 sufficient for the purpose, is desirous of issuing them in lieu of United States legal tender notes of former issues remaining in circulation, all of which, whatever their condition, it is desired to retire. Therefore, when returns are made in new notes of the series of 1869, they will be forwarded only to the parties from which the old notes have been received. Hereafter new notes will not be forwarded from the Treasurer's office in return for certificates of deposit issued to Assistant Treasurers and designated depositaries of the United States as provided in circulars No. 8 (1869) and No. 1 (1870), and new notes will not be forwarded in return for bankers' drafts, as provided in circular No. 1 (1870). New fractional currency will be forwarded by express from the Treasurer's office under government contract, with Adams' Express Company to any point within the territory covered by that contract, at the expense of the department on certain terms.

Counterfeit Tobacco Stamps.

The points of difference between the counterfeit and the genuine stamp are so marked as to be easily detected by the glass. They are as follows:

FIRST: The imprint in the counterfeit is badly engraved, and a trifle larger than the genuine. The words "Continental Bank Note Co., New York," in the genuine are small, distinct, and not connected, each letter standing separate, while in the counterfeit the letters are heavier, and more crowded, larger, and closer together, and in the word "Continental" the "l" joins the "n," making the "l" and "n" look like an "m," with a period at the end of the imprint in the counterfeit, which is omitted in the genuine.

SECOND: In the sky of the counterfeit, over the mane of the horse, will be observed four small dots: in the genuine the sky is made of straight lines.

THIRD: The ornamental lines resembling small stars on each side of the vignette in the lathe work of the counterfeit look imperfect and blurred, while in the genuine they appear bright.

FOURTH: Over the white faced figure "6" on the left side of the stamp in the genuine is a small black figure, a part of the lathe work pattern which is wanting in the counterfeit, and the imitation lathe work of the counterfeit has a muddy appearance, while in the genuine the patterns are clear and distinct.

GREENBACKS.

50s left centre, oval portrait of Hamilton; Treasury die in pink on right of die; 50 on die on each end of note.

COUNTERFEIT GREENBACKS.

1s, (1st kind) can be readily detected by the inferior style of the engraving, particularly the head of Chase. The mouth is crooked, the eyes imperfect, and the hair on the top of the head resembles side hair brushed over to cover baldness. The back is of a lighter green than the genuine.

1s, (2d kind) the general appearance is very coarse and may readily be detected; green ink is very pale. On the imitation there is a black straight line under the red figures on the upper part of the bill; none in gen.

2s, imit., well executed. Coat of Hamilton badly done. The shirt bosom of Hamilton is very dark and uneven, but in the genuine white and plain. The shading of the words "UNITED STATES" light and broken.

5s, 10s, genuine notes without the red seal, and others reported without the usual number being printed upon them.

5s, imit., words "United States" heavily shaded. Gen. are clear, slightly shaded and plain. The words "Patented 30th June, 1857," under the words N. York are not on the counterfeit bill. All the counterfeits are letter A, and are $\frac{1}{2}$ inch shorter than the genuine.

On the new series of 10 letter "A," around the figure of Liberty on left end is a plain black line. On the counterfeits, this line along the bottom of the figure running towards the right of the note forms two distinct lines, on gen. only one. But this may be a counterfeiter's dodge to have it described and alter it afterwards.

5s, imit., this bill is well calculated to deceive, and the only difference we can detect is in the die on the right end enclosing the figure 5. The genuine has three black circles enclosing the 5. The imit. has only two, and on lower right end figure 8, and on left end series 90.

10s. Paper very light, and the green ink of a lighter shade. Dated March 10th, 1862.

10s imit. There are 16 small Xs on upper right margin, and only 15 on the genuine. The words "Printed by the National Bk Note Co." on lower left margin extends over 9 of the Xs on imit. and 8 on the genuine.

10s, imit., has 14 small x's on upper right margin—16 on left. The gen. has 15 x's each side of engravers name. Portrait of Pres. Lincoln is very coarse and pale looking; imit. are dated Washington, March 10, 1862, letter O.

20s, very close imit. of gen., the engraving is good, in the center figure the foot of the female can scarcely be seen. On the left end bottom are the words "Payable at the Treasury of the U. S. at New York." The A's in payable are too small and uneven. The letter 'x' in the word 'The' is not crossed in the centre. The imprint is defective; the green ink is of too light a color.

50s, alt'd from 2s, portrait of Hamilton on left centre. The vignettes of the two-dollar and fifty-dollar Treasury note are the same. Ingenious persons are counterfeiting the body of the fifties and using the vignettes of the twos, producing a note that deceives experts.

50s, imit. observe the figures 50 on back of the bill around the margin, the 5 in the imit. runs into the 0, gen. does not. The word 'FIFTY' around the above 50 can scarcely be read. Words 'LEGAL TENDER' is very much blurred. Letter C dated March 8, '63. On the left lower corner the No. 550 instead of 50 enclosed in one circle.

50s, imit., observe the head of Hamilton, upon the face of the note, which represents the line of the waistcoat crossing the white collar at the neck. The acute angle formed by the shape of the collar, so far as it is shown, is perfect in the counterfeit note; but in the genuine the lines of the flesh were drawn by the engraver across the point of the collar at its junction with the waistcoat, for the purpose of relieving the angle of the sharpness it would otherwise have exhibited. This difference is not readily observed unless the notes are perfectly clean. The other discrepancy is in the shape of the ornaments in the border on each end of the face of the bills, and in the whole border on the back. The figures "50" are engraved on a green ground, of which the rim, in the genuine bill, is in octagonal form, rather well defined, though the angles are not sharp. The eight sides of what at first view appeared to be circles, may be easily discerned. In the counterfeit bill the border ornaments, containing the "50" are octagonal in only a very slight degree, and seem to be perfect circles. The general appearance of the counterfeit gives no indication of its true character.

100s, imit. the red figures are much larger than the figures of any Treasury Notes, the wings of the eagle are very coarse—the double rule running from it is heavier, and the curve twice as large, while there is a diagonal shading at the joint of the imprint with the rim, which does not appear on the genuine. On the right end of the back of the bill, the 100 in the circles are inverted, thus, 001. In the genuine this inversion is on the left end. The imprint, American Bank Note Co., is very uneven, and too large.

100s, imit., (2d kind) of the notes issued under the act of February, 1862, well executed. The spurious note is smaller, and the coloring on the back is paler than on the genuine bill. The words "one hundred dollars" on the right hand side of the counterfeit are smaller than on the genuine note.

100s, imit., (3d kind) the note is smaller than the genuine, the spread eagle is very coarse, and the shading of UNITED STATES is badly done. The bill is calculated to deceive.

COUNTERFEIT COUPONS.

The following are the words on the coupons: "Acts of July 17 and August 5, 1861. The United States of America will pay to bearer fifteen dollars for six months' interest due 1st January, 1867, upon bond No. 785, for $500. L. E. Chittenden, Register United States Treasury.

FIVE CENT COIN COUNTERFEITS

Are in circulation. They may be distinguished from the genuine by the softness of the metal.

COUNTERFEIT

FRACTIONAL CURRENCY.

Old Issue.

50s, imit., the portraits of Washington differs one from another; in the genuine they are all alike; the green color looks light and pale.

25s, imit., well executed. Look out.

2d Issue.

10s, imitation. All gen. on the top has the word "Depositories," the imitation reads "Depositories."

50s, imit., have a pale slate color. The small barrels on lower right corner are very indistinct. The gen. have six barrels perfectly clear and plain. Three on lower row, two on next, and one on top. The counterfeit barrels are black, and gen. are white.

50s raised from 5s.

3d Issue.

50c. imit.; two kinds of the new long 50 cent currency. The imitation of one kind has DESIGNATED on upper right corner instead of DESIGNATED. The second kind has designated correctly spelt, but on the little American Shield, under the Eagle, there is a black line drawn across the upright bars of the Shield. But so on the genuine.

25s, imit., are very pale and coarse. The letter C in cents on left end is smaller than the other letters, and too far off.

New Issue.

25, imitation. Above the words "Treasury Department," on the bottom of the hill in the genuine there is a fine dotted line—the counterfeits have a straight line.

Notice the shading of the "25" on the back of the note. The genuine is dark, while the counterfeits are very pale, and very little darker than the other green. The word "of" on the face of the genuine appears thus—"of"—on the counterfeit "of."

25s, imit., well executed, but may be detected by the absence of a period (.) after the word Treasurer under Spinner's name; the work is better than any we have previously seen and liable to deceive unless carefully examined.

25s, well executed; head of Chittenden; where it reads "Furnished only by the Assistant Treasurers" the Assistant is spelt "Assistatun." In the genuine the shading of the letter "E" in "Five" is unbroken, while the counterfeit has a little notch in it.

50s, well executed. The engraving on the face of the note is excellent. The adverse is slightly blurred. The notes are an eighth of an inch narrower than the genuine.

50s, the "y" in "Colby's" name crosses a line of the coat in the genuine, but not in the counterfeit.

50s, the line of stars on counterfeit between the figures "50" at the top and bottom of the back of the note have white centres, while the entire stars on genuine are in green. The reading in black on the genuine note clear and distinct, while on the counterfeit the bronze is printed on the black, the words "FIFTY CENTS" being almost obliterated.

50s, well done. The last "e" in the signature of F. E. Spinner is omitted in some, and the (.) after print, on one end, and the d. after March 30.

50s. New and dangerous counterfeits of the last issue of the fifty cent fractional currency notes, which bear upon their face the head of Treasurer Spinner, have been detected by the Treasury Department. It can be detected by the absence of a period (.) after the word print on the right end, and also under the letter "d" in "March 30," on the left end. The paper is thicker than that of the genuine notes, and the general appearance is calculated to deceive unless closely inspected.

COUNTERFEIT 7.30 BONDS.

The seal is slightly larger than the genuine; the red ink with which it is stamped is a shade lighter, and the points projecting from the seal are blurred and a little longer than the genuine. The imprint at the bottom of the face of the bond is set different in the margin, there being more space given it than in the genuine. The borders of the coupon which are attached to the counterfeit bonds are larger, while the red figures are finer than in the genuine. The borders of the ornamental lathe work are blurred and somewhat indifferently executed. The figures denoting the bond are slightly uneven, while the blue ink in which they are printed is a duller blue and lacks the metallic glossy appearance of the genuine.

EXTRACT JUNIPER.

Dr. Guilmette, Physician and Chemist of forty years' experience, after many costly trials, has succeeded in producing a pure JUNIPERINE EXTRACT, warranted free from the deleterious oils usually found in foreign and domestic Gins, and which, by their action upon the fluids and tissues of the body, aggravate the disease, rather than effect a cure.

It is an infusion of the berries of the celebrated Italian Juniper in the best quality of Gin. The result is a PLEASANT STIMULATING, CHEMICALLY PURE, HEALTH GIVING PREPARATION, which has received the endorsement of eminent Physicians and Chemists, as well as the general public. AS A SAFE, SURE REMEDY FOR ALL AFFECTIONS OF THE KIDNEYS AND URINARY ORGANS IT HAS NO EQUAL. It entirely counteracts the ill effects produced by impure water. Try it and be convinced.
